

THE LOVE OF GOD (Romans 8:31-39)

By Rev. Moses Olaleru

INTRODUCTION

The ups and downs in this world are making our heart to say does God still love us? We are bewildered to say where this love of Christ that is shed in our heart as Paul explained to the Corinthians. It is as a result of the thinking in your heart about the love of God that prompts to tell you that God still loves you. The love of God is central throughout the pages of the Scriptures. The love of God is supreme and absolute. In this teaching, I will like to share with you the convincing proofs of this love of God to mankind.

Paul, while addressing the Romans, raises a pertinent question, we are also raising now about the love of Christ, what shall separate us from the love of Christ. While giving his defense, he makes us to see the following truths about God.

The Profound Truths As Exemplified in the Passage

1. Since God is for you, nobody can stand against you. (Jos. 1:5) God told Joshua there would no man that would be able to stand against you.
2. Since God is for you, He will give you all things you need. The fact that you have not gotten it does not mean He will not give you. If God did not spare His son and releasing Him to the world, there is nothing He cannot give you. That is the submission of Paul.
3. Since God is for you, false accusations or allegations cannot stand.(Zech. 3:3)Paul said who can charge allegation on the elect, such unsubstantial lies will not stand against you.
4. Since God is for you, when He justifies you, no condemnation will stand. (John 8: 10, 11) The message of God is that Jesus did not come to condemn but He came to justifies a sinner that will repent of his/her wrongdoing.
5. Since God is for you, Christ intercedes for you. He knows your strength, or what your strength can carry; therefore, He intercedes for you so that you can overcome the challenge of life.

It is on this note, Paul said with these benefits, is that anything that capable of separating us from the love of Christ. As we ruminate on this question of yours, I will provide proofs of His love to you that will help you not to separating the love of Christ.

The Proof

1. In a dead situation, Jesus wept (John 11:35). The weeping of Jesus connotes: His love to you, His identification with you in that situation. He feels the pain that this is a dead situation. He did not leave you on the spot without providing solution to the problem. He pronounced life, and the spirit of dead left Lazarus. I pronounce life to every dead situation in your life.

2. In the storm of life, Jesus came to rescue and calmed the storm (Matt. 14: 24-28, 32).
This is a sincere love from Christ; He came to their rescue, and calmed the storm. Beloved don't mistake your helper as a ghost, be sensitive to know that God sends him to you to rescue you. The storm will cease in the mighty name of Jesus.
3. Amidst furnace of fire, God appeared to be your friend (Dan. 3: 24, 25) His word says the fire will not burn you, and its flame will not kill you. The three Hebrews men enjoyed this awesome promise of God. He cooled the fire, as air-conditioners, and He appeared as the fourth person in the furnace.
4. In the den of lions, God shut the mouth of lions (Dan. 6: 21, 22) Deadly animals will not harm you, and He will send His angel to shut the mouth of lions.
5. When you are confused about your future, God came will declaration of a promising future (Jer. 29:11). Your future is bright, and He promised you an expected end.
6. When you are a sinner, He died for you (Rom. 5: 8). He died for you; forgave you your sins; He destroyed the curse placed upon you, and every hand-writing written against you; and made wide pronouncement that it is finished.

With all these convincing evidences, I want to believe you will say truly that God loves you; nothing should separate you from the love of Christ. Shall we rise on our feet to read the latter passages of our text and put the devil to shame, and says nothing will separate me from the love of Christ. Today I declare that: death, life, angles, principalities, things present, things to come, power, height, depth, anything in all the creation will be able to separate from the love of Christ. I am more than conquerors.
